

Please do not change the Indiana Do not Call List regulations. It has made our home a much quieter place to enjoy peace. We do not need bank sollicitaions, we know where to go to get the services we need. The banks can use other forms of communication that will not impede on our rights.